

THE FIRESTARTER

August 22, 2025

MY FAVORITE EXERCISE IS A CROSS BETWEEN A LUNGE AND A CRUNCH. IT'S CALLED LUNCH.

Ohhh my ghoulness!!! There were so many fantastic costumes last weekend!! Thank you so much Trina for organizing the annual Spruce Sands Halloween in August!! This was Trina's first year organizing and she did such an amazing job. None of this is possible without the oragnizers and all their efforts.

'Spook'tacular

The 'Sands Beach Cafe'

We still have a creepy crawly treat for you this weekend!! I hope you all enjoy some 'WORMS IN DIRT' with your ice cream!

come on in and try some with your choice of chocolate or vanilla soft serve ice cream with some gummy worms and chocolate crumble.

And don't forget we have over 24 flavours of soft serve that you can mix and match. Try any combination.

All sundaes and twisters can be made with your choice of chocolate or vanilla ice cream.

September long weekend is approaching quickly, so just a reminder that the store closes on the Monday of the long weekend at 6pm.

Please have patience with our staff as we slowly run out of all the good stuff. It is our goal to sell out.

yum

WHY DON'T EGGS TELL JOKES?

THEY'D CRACK EACH OTHER UP!

THE COOKIE SHEET

FRANK'S RED HOT BUFFALO CHICKEN DIP

2 cups shredded cooked chicken
12 oz cream cheese, room temperature
1/2 cup buffalo sauce (I use Frank's Red Hot)
3/4 cup ranch dressing
1/2 cup shredded Monterey Jack cheese
1 1/4 cup shredded cheddar cheese, divided
Green onions, optional
Chips, crackers or veggies, for serving

Preheat the oven to 350°F.

Combine chicken, cream cheese, buffalo sauce, ranch dressing, Monterey jack cheese and 3/4 cup of the cheddar cheese in a large bowl, then spread into a baking dish. Sprinkle the top with the remaining cheddar cheese and a sprinkle of Monterey jack cheese. Bake for 20 minutes, or until hot. Sprinkle with green onions, if desired. Serve warm with chips, crackers or veggies.

YOU DON'T SAY

A man broke into a home while the residents were away and stole a collection of jewelry, some electronics, and a small amount of cash.

Apparently dissatisfied with his haul, the burglar used a laptop he found in the house to log onto Yelp. He left a one-star review for the "business" (the private home) on the popular review site. The review reportedly read:

"Easily jimmied the back window latch, no security system. Layout is decent for quick in-and-out, but the loot is terrible. Barely any cash, jewelry is cheap and fake. Would not rob again. 1 star." But guess what, he posted the review under his own name.

The homeowners returned, discovered the burglary, and called the police. While filing the report, one of the victims was scrolling through their phone and noticed a new Yelp notification for their home address (some people had mistakenly set it up as a business years prior as a joke).

They showed the bizarre, incriminating review to the investigating officers. Police quickly located the Yelp user profile, which was linked to the burglar's real email address and contained photos of him.

He was arrested within hours.
